

PROGRAMME

9 October 2008

08.30 Registration and refreshments

Plenary Session 1

Chair: Alex Scott-Samuel, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

09.30 Introduction

Alex Scott-Samuel, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

09.40 Keynote presentation:

Health impact assessment and health inequalities

Margaret Whitehead, W H Duncan Chair of Public Health, University of Liverpool, England

10.30 Refreshments

Plenary Session 2

Chair: Margaret Whitehead, W H Duncan Chair of Public Health, University of Liverpool, England

11.00 The implications of the Commission on Social Determinants of Health report for HIA

Ben Cave, Ben Cave Associates, England; Co-Chair, IAIA Health Section

Carlos Dora, World Health Organisation HQ Geneva, Switzerland

Alex Scott-Samuel, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Sarah Simpson, World Health Organisation Regional Office for Europe, Venice, Italy

11.50 Parallel session 1

1A Sustainable well-being - Hornby Room

Chair: Lea den Broeder, National Institute for Public Health and the Environment, The Netherlands

A report on an HIA of the Alcohol Harm Reduction Strategy for England

Ben Cave, Ben Cave Associates, England

Excellence for the masses: Can the Royal Commonwealth Pool, Edinburgh deliver health improvement?

Martin Higgins, NHS Lothian, Scotland

HIA: Is sustainable well-being possible without health equity?

Jordan Panayotov, Independent Centre for Analysis and Research of Economies, Australia

Burden of disease due to environmental tobacco smoke in North Rhine-Westphalia: Situation before implementation of the non-smoker-protection legislation

Thomas Classen, Bielefeld University, Germany

1B Healthy urban planning - Merchant Suite

Chair: Erica Ison, Specialist Practitioner in HIA, England

Influencing planning through HIA

Claire Higgins, Institute of Public Health in Ireland

The role of HIA in promoting eco-industrialism for developing healthier business parks to support sustainable urban planning

Arvin Prashar, University of Salford, England

A framework for public health officials to integrate HIA considerations in municipal project undertakings for the City of Toronto

Ronald Macfarlane, Toronto Public Health, Canada

1C Capacity building and quality assurance - Lever Room

Chair: Martin Birley, BirleyHIA, England

A comparison of the design and outcomes of HIA capacity building programmes at national and international level

Debbie Abrahams, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Building capacity for health impact assessment: Current status and future directions

Andrew Dannenberg, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, USA

Assessing the impacts of health impact assessments in the United States

Arthur Wendel, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, USA

How do we determine, and then improve, quality and standards for HIA?

Mette Fredsgaard, Ben Cave Associates, England

1D Workshop - Walker Room

Be realistic: demand the impossible!

Debra Fox, University of Liverpool, England

Fiona Haigh, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

13.10 Lunch

Plenary Session 3

Chair: Carlos Dora, World Health Organisation HQ Geneva, Switzerland

14.10 Keynote presentation:

The power of health: Spirituality and health impact assessment in Thailand

Decharut Sukkumnoed, Kasetsart University and Healthy Public Policy Foundation, Thailand

14.55 Parallel session 2

2A Methodology - Merchant Suite

Chair: Margaret Douglas, NHS Lothian, Scotland

Assessment and access: Negotiating roles in a global impact assessment of a polyclinic procurement

Neil de Reybekill, MEL Research, England

Evaluation of HIA: Challenging (some of) the received wisdom

Erica Ison, Specialist Practitioner in HIA, England

Inclusion of health and well-being impacts within environmental assessments for major land-use planning projects in New South Wales, Australia

Elizabeth Harris, Centre for Health Equity Training, Research and Evaluation, University of New South Wales, Australia

2B Health impact assessment - Walker Room

Chair: Owen Metcalfe, Institute of Public Health in Ireland

Health impact assessment of a local regeneration project in a southern European city (Bilbao)

Amaia Bacigalupe, Basque Government Health Department, Spain

Increasing human health assessment and promotion in the United States

Sarah Heaton, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, USA

Application of rapid health impact assessment to the administration system change in a city in Japan

Michiko Hoshiko, Kurume University School of Medicine, Japan

Tatsuya Ishitake, Kurume University School of Medicine, Japan

Kunio Hara, Kurume University School of Medicine, Japan

2C Healthy urban planning - Hornby Room

Chair: Andrew Dannenburg, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, USA

Health impact assessment in physical planning: Preserve urban green areas or develop them?

Ida Knutsson, Swedish National Institute of Public Health

Marsh Farm New Deal for Communities equality-focused HIA

Helen Miller, Marsh Farm Community Development Trust, England

Chimeme Egbutah, Luton Borough Council and Luton Teaching Primary Care Trust, England

Assessing the health impacts of a major town centre development proposal: Spotlight on urban design and the loss of green space

Andrew Pennington, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Health inequalities and equality impact assessment of Healthcare for London: Consulting the capital

Paul Iggulden, Ben Cave Associates, England

2D Workshop - Lever Room

Spiritual well-being in HIA

Martin Birley, BirleyHIA, England

Decharut Sukkumnoed, Kasetsart University and Healthy Public Policy Foundation, Thailand

Eva Elliott, Welsh HIA Support Unit

Anthea Cooke, Inukshuk Consultancy Ltd, England

16.20 Refreshments

Plenary Session 4

Chair: Carlos Dora, World Health Organisation HQ Geneva, Switzerland

16.40 Plenary presentation:

Addressing health impacts through strategic environmental assessment (SEA): Current evidence and potential

Thomas Fischer, Professor of Civic Design, University of Liverpool, England

17.10 Close

18.30 Reception at Merseyside Maritime Museum (2nd floor)

Welcome: Gideon Ben Tovim, Chair, Liverpool Primary Care Trust, England

19.45 Conference dinner at Merseyside Maritime Museum

23.00 Close

10 October 2008

08.30 Registration and refreshments

Plenary Session 5

Chair: Anthea Cooke, Inukshuk Consultancy Ltd, England

09.00 Introduction

Anthea Cooke, Inukshuk Consultancy Ltd, England

09.10 Keynote presentation:

HIA at the crossroads: Are we ready for the unanticipated impacts of success? An Australian perspective

Elizabeth Harris, Centre for Health Equity Training, Research and Evaluation, University of New South Wales, Australia

09.55 Plenary presentation:

Achieving system change for well-being through HIA

Jude Stansfield, Care Services Improvement Partnership North West, England

10.30 Refreshments

11.00 Parallel session 3

3A Quantification - Hornby Room

Chair: Odile Mekel, Innovation Management, NRW Institute of Health and Work (LIGA.NRW), Centre of Public Health, Germany

Environmental determinants of public health in Scotland

Hilary Cowie, Institute of Occupational Medicine, Scotland

Comparing health impact assessment and health technology assessment: Exploratory analysis

Rainer Fehr, Health Innovation and Management, LIGA.NRW, Germany

Quantifying the health impacts of stack emissions from waste incineration facilities

Salim Vohra, Centre for Health Impact Assessment, Institute of Occupational Medicine, England

DYNAMO-HIA: A tool for the quantification of health impact of policies

Stefan Lhachimi, Erasmus MC, The Netherlands

3B Well-being and impact assessment - Lever Room

Chair: Louise Signal, HIA Research Unit, University of Otago, New Zealand

Comparing HIA and MWIA: Are there grounds for integration?

Martin Higgins, NHS Lothian, Scotland

Promoting and protecting mental well-being through impact assessment

Anthea Cooke, Inukshuk Consultancy Ltd, England

Involving the public in HIA: An evaluation of current practice in Wales

Chloe Chadderton, Welsh Health Impact Assessment Support Unit

3C Sustainable well-being - Walker Room

Chair: Hilary Dreaves, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Social sustainability assessment of the Mellersta Norrland Structural Fund Programme and a structural fund project

Andreas Johansson, Swedish National Institute of Public Health

Hans ten Berg, Swedish National Institute of Public Health

A prospective HIA of a selective licensing scheme in the South Wales Valleys

Maria Uren, Welsh Local Government Association

Health in all policies: Supporting municipalities in the Netherlands, lessons learned

Marije van Koperen, Netherlands Institute of Health Promotion and Disease Prevention

Sarah Pos, Netherlands Institute of Health Promotion and Disease Prevention

3D Workshop - Merchant Suite

Making the case for public health in Strategic Environmental Assessment

Ben Cave, Ben Cave Associates, England

Lea den Broeder, National Institute for Public Health and the Environment, The Netherlands

Margaret Douglas, NHS Lothian, Scotland

Martin Higgins, NHS Lothian, Scotland

Erica Ison, Specialist Practitioner in HIA, England

12.20 Lunch

Plenary Session 6

Chair: Debra Fox, University of Liverpool, England

13.30 Plenary presentation:

Questions of spirituality: The challenge of assessing impacts on spiritual health - reflections from Aotearoa/New Zealand

Louise Signal, HIA Research Unit, University of Otago, New Zealand

14.00 Parallel session 4

4A Healthy urban planning - Hornby Room

Chair: Debbie Abrahams, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Can Liverpool city development provide practice examples of urban planning and health?

Rainer Fehr, Health and Innovation Management, LIGA.NRW, Germany

HIA of a football stadium, superstore and town centre development: How was it for you?

Fiona Haigh, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Adding value to planning: An HIA of the preferred strategy of a local development plan in Wales

Liz Green, Welsh Health Impact Assessment Support Unit

4B Methodology - Lever Room

Chair: Mary Mahoney, University of Gloucester, England

Considering the validity of methods used for an HIA of the redevelopment of social housing in Devonport, Plymouth

Andrew Pratt, Plymouth PCT, England

Developing a peer review process for HIA: Experience in the WHO European Healthy Cities Network

Erica Ison, Specialist Practitioner in HIA, England

Engendering health impact assessment, equity and human rights

Helen Keleher, Department of Health Sciences, Monash University, Australia

4C Looking forward - Walker Room

Chair: Ben Cave, Ben Cave Associates, England

Institutionalising HIA in Korea

Eun Jeong Chun, Seoul University, Republic of Korea

Use of HIA in planning for climate change

Diane McClymont Peace, Health Canada

HIA, but not as we know it: Are we ready for legislation?

Andrew Pennington, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Beyond Mrs Hatton: Where are we now in the development of the legal basis for health impact assessment?

Roger Seddon, Welsh European Funding Office

4D Workshop - Merchant Suite

Competence and training framework for HIA

Martin Birley, BirleyHIA, England

Hilary Dreaves, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Plenary Session 7

Chair: Alex Scott-Samuel, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

15.20 Question time: Future of HIA

Panel:

Debbie Abrahams, IMPACT, University of Liverpool, England

Ben Cave, Ben Cave Associates, England

Andrew Dannenberg, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, USA

Carlos Dora, World Health Organisation HQ Geneva, Switzerland

Elizabeth Harris, Centre for Health Equity Training, Research and Evaluation, University of New South Wales, Australia

Decharut Sukkumnoed, Kasetsart University and Healthy Public Policy Foundation, Thailand

Matthias Wismar, European Observatory on Health Systems and Policies, Belgium

16.05 Comments on panel discussion

Lea den Broeder, National Institute for Public Health and the Environment, The Netherlands

16.10 Handover to HIA09 Netherlands

Lea den Broeder, National Institute for Public Health and the Environment, The Netherlands

Joop ten Dam, Netherlands Institute for Health Promotion

16.15 Close and refreshments